

Excellence

Personal Excellence – Discipline – Pride - High standards and expectations

Discipline holds a special place in Benedict's community. St Benedict carefully outlines the qualities the leaders should possess: wisdom, prudence, discretion, and sensitivity to individual differences.

What defines the leader of a Benedictine community is not being head of an institution but being in relationship with all the members.